

Aubrianne is a fierce advocate for babies and their moms. She has volunteered in the pro-life world since she was 13 years old and also volunteers frequently in foster care ministries. She has worked in nonprofit fundraising and has over twelve years experience in infant and early child education. While earning her Bachelor's degree in Political Science and Communications, Aubrianne interned for both Fox News and the White House. Her Christian faith is the foundation to everything she does and further solidifies her firm belief in the sanctity of all human life, from conception to natural death.
